Breaking Records... it's what we do!

Bill Slattery, CO (High Altai)

HIGH ALTAI

There is perhaps no sheep in the world that can rival the Ovis ammon ammon. Characterized by its heavy bases, this hunt is considered the Holy Grail of sheep hunting. High Altai Argali import permits are limited. $90,000 - $150,000 depending upon area.

Safari Outfitters opened sport hunting in this magnificent country Sixty One (61) years ago. No one in the industry can match our experience sending sport hunters to this proud nation! Our areas are the best in the country - our success on big rams envied!

SCI & OVIS acknowledge three individual hunting locations in Mongolia for record book purposes. The three locations are: High Altai Argali (Ovis ammon ammon) in the West Altai Mountains; Hanghai Mountain region, aka Mid-Altai sheep, and Gobi Argali (Ovis ammon darwini).

Hunting Season: Argali hunts must take place from July 1 to Sept. 30; Ibex hunts from July 15 to Oct. 15.

GOBI ARGALI

The Gobi Desert is a land of magnificent desolation and stark beauty. Much of the Gobi is relatively flat land with scarce vegetation. The Gobi is considered high desert, but is not real mountainous. A four-wheel drive vehicle is used to get you around the cuts, ravines, canyons and high plateaus.

We offer a 10-day schedule from arrival in Ulaanbaatar (UB) arriving day 1; departing day 10 at the rate of $70,000 for any ram.

This rate includes meet & greet at the Ulaanbaatar airport, transport to/from the airport, all hunting services including 4-wheel drive vehicle, interpreter, hunting guides, cook and camp assistants, accommodations in a comfortable ger (yurt) or spike camp as needed, 2 nights at a hotel in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolian invitation and field preparation of your trophy, airfares/vehicle transfers (as required) within Mongolia. NOT INCLUDED- gun permit, and CITES Export Certificate excess luggage charges, items of a personal nature, shipment of trophy and tips. Non-hunters @ $3,900.

HANGAY ARGALI

We have worked with our Mongolian partners many years. We both understand the need to limit permits in our exclusive areas in order to maintain quality - thus the reason we have taken such spectacular trophies.
